

Eastminster Presbyterian Church

Service for the Lord's Day
June 30, 2019

*Call to Confession

*Prayer of Confession

Lord, sometimes we forget about you or ignore you. We try to make it on our own; we think we don't need your guidance in our lives or in our church. We most certainly know what is best for us, our congregation, and our community. Forgive us, Lord, for trying to live without you. Guide us to depend on you and seek your ways. Embolden us to see abundance and to share it with others.

(Silent prayers of confession)

RESPONSE TO THE WORD

Act of Response

In your bulletin are two sticky notes. On the blue one, write something memorable from this year that you are thankful for. On the pink one, write a hope for the next year.

When you are ready, come forward with the sticky notes. First stop at the baptismal fount. Consider the challenges that we find when following Jesus' call to be a disciple. Challenges such as:

I don't have the time.

I don't have the resources.

I'm uncomfortable reaching out.

I'm not sure where best I can help.

*Those people should be doing more for themselves.
and (note other things that inhibit your call).*

Say a prayer to help overcome these areas. Take a marble and drop it anywhere in the font, noting how the ripples touch all sides, even those behind the obstacles. So it is with our serving, reaching far beyond the obvious.

Then take your sticky notes and place them in the baskets on the communion table, as an act of remembering this year and looking forward to ways we can continue to feed others.

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

Worship Note: The Call to Worship is from the book "Before the Amen: Creative Resources for Worship."

New Here? Thank you for joining us as we worship God this morning. Information about our church is available in the narthex, including our weekly email. We invite you to sign in on the Friendship pads found at the end of the pew, so we can greet you by name. Please join us for Coffee Fellowship after worship, in the space we call the Green Room, which is across from the sanctuary.

Prayer Cards are in the Friendship Pads, which are at the end of each pew. If you have a prayer request that you would like announced during the service, please write it on the prayer card and you can place it in the plate during the collection of the offering. The Pastor will read them (unless marked private) before the Pastoral Prayer.

Children and Worship: Children are always welcome in worship at Eastminster. Children's bulletins can be found outside the sanctuary doors as well as activity bags, which they can use during the service. We have created a space for children at the front of the sanctuary. Your child is welcome to use that space or remain in the pews with you.

Eastminster Mission Statement

We, the members of Eastminster Presbyterian Church, celebrate the grace of God and the redeeming love of Jesus Christ.

We believe we are called as God's children to:

Praise and worship God;

Nurture and support spiritual growth as a family of faith;

Promote an open and welcoming community;

Reach out to the world with compassion;
and seek God's justice.

We strive to develop and use our Spirit-given gifts to share our faith in word and deed

as disciples who serve the Lord Jesus Christ

according to the will of God.
