Hymn #205 Live in Charity

Live in Charity

205

Ubi caritas

The musical score is written for four parts: Soprano, Alto, Tenor, and Bass. It is in 2/4 time and B-flat major. The lyrics are: "Live in char - i - ty and stead - fast love. U - bi ca - ri - tas et a - mor, Live in char - i - ty; God will dwell with you. u - bi ca - ri - tas De - us i - bi est." The score includes a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat) and a time signature of 2/4. There are triplets in the final two lines of the refrain.

This refrain comes from a Latin hymn associated with the washing of feet on Maundy Thursday. Whether in English or Latin, it is most effective when sung unaccompanied and in parts. In many ways it is a miniature equivalent of "Will You Let Me Be Your Servant" (see no. 727).

Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession

Merciful God, what is it we should confess in your presence that we have not already admitted before? Perhaps little—save this: We have absolved our own guilt by expecting little of ourselves. We have reigned in our dreams to avoid being disappointed in ourselves, and in you. Rekindle in us a living faith that greets the day with expectation. This is the prayer we tremble to offer to you.

These stanzas are selected from a 20th-century English poetic version of an Irish monastic prayer dating to the 10th century or before. They are set to an Irish folk melody that has proved popular and easily sung despite its lack of repetition and its wide range.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.
